TURN-KEY OPERATOR

We comprehensively handle every facet of turning your vision into a fully functional, aesthetically pleasing, and efficient workspace.

Planning: Our dedicated team collaborates closely with you to tailor the master design template to cater to your needs, optimizing space to reflect your workflow and brand aesthetics. We then head to the drawing board, translating these ideas into customized designs that seamlessly align with your vision and business goals. Our project delivery schedules are meticulously prepared with clear milestones, and we vigilantly monitor deliverables to ensure objectives are met.

Execution: Our unwavering commitment to precision extends to every aspect, from material selection to timely project completion and cost-effectiveness. With a keen eye on every detail, we guarantee that your workspace is ready for business on time, every time!

Quality Assurance: Team Triver prioritizes quality at every stage, ensuring your office space not only meets, but exceeds the highest industry standards, making it a space you can truly take pride in.

WE DELIVER VALUE THAT LASTS

Client-Centric Environments: Enhanced client experience is our foremost priority, and that's why we work to ensure that your customers feel comfortable and valued when they visit your branches.

Ergonomics and Efficiency: We plan workspaces meticulously to optimize ergonomics and efficiency, ensuring your work flows seamlessly and comfortably.

Sustainability: We wholeheartedly embrace sustainable practices, crafting office spaces that are not just visually pleasing but also environmentally responsible and energy-efficient.

Collaborative Zones: Our commitment extends to creating collaborative spaces that encourage teamwork - enhancing productivity, and nurturing a culture of creative thinking.

MEET THE TRIVER TEAM

K Rama Narayan

Meet Ram, the dynamic CEO steering the ship at Triver. With a rich tapestry of experience in sales and business development, he has become synonymous with building and fostering deep-rooted business relationships, a testament to his remarkable PR prowess.

An avid reader, sports fanatic, and music lover, his passion is unmistakable. And at Triver, under Ram's guidance, we chart new territories with this same zeal.

C V Shaji

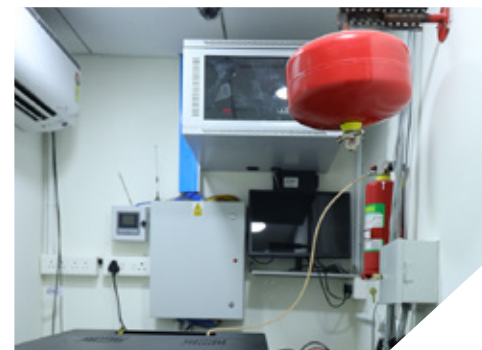

At the heart of our operations stands Shaji, masterfully directing project execution and technical support at Triver. Honing his skills with the ICICI infra team for two decades, he has not only mastered the intricate technical nuances but also architected the very platform on which our business stands today.

Beyond the boardroom, he is an avid marathon runner, equally passionate about immersing himself in sports as he is about the mesmerizing beats of Kerala's celebrated percussionists.

George C Kuriakose

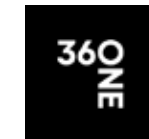

George, an anchor in our organizational structure, seamlessly oversees Finance, Admin, and HR. Powered by an illustrious tenure, his in-depth expertise in Operations, Processes, and the nuances of Finance infuses our business with steadfastness and core strength.

Always on the hunt for fresh business ideas, George is also an avid reader and mentor, who's passionate about imparting wisdom and capturing life's moments through his lens.
